1. Manager's Message

Hello and welcome to redseason's May 2018 Newsletter!

OK, Folks, I think Spring has finally sprung...for us here in the PNW, at least! April has seen its fair share of chilly weather, but we finished strong with some truly sunny and balmy days...and these first days of May are looking pretty awesome too! The adage of "May Flowers" is definitely applicable here...flowers and blossoms everywhere one looks and what a sight to behold! As you can tell, after a dreary and drippy winter, Spring and some sunny skies are definitely a huge deal over this way....HUGE! LOL!

However much I am enjoying Spring at this time, I am still looking forward to some pretty great vacationing in the next several months! There are several trips planned to various states to experience various sights....some to theme parks, some to be closer to family so they can join in, some just to get away and do nothing better than relax! We LOVE staying at the WorldMark resorts with all their comfy amenities and great locations! Believe me, in the past we've had our share of vacationing in basic hotel rooms with everyone stuffed into one room with two beds, etc....and staying in a WorldMark suite can definitely be one of the main things that makes a great vacation even more top notch!!

We sure hope that you are also looking forward to some awesome vacationing these next months! We would love to assist you in making your vacations all that you hope for, so please let us know if we can help you add more credits to your vacation plans or perhaps get someone started for the first time into some fun times ahead! Enjoy those May Flowers, but know that vacation season is on its way!! :)

3. Did You Know...?

Do you know that WorldMark has a publication entitled "Club Guidelines" that is chock-full of information about how to use your membership? When you are logged in to your account page at www.worldmarktheclub.com, in the menu to the left click on Online Reference Library, and under Documents you will find the Club Guidelines. This was just updated in January of this year, so you know the information is current. I highly recommend this as essential reading, especially for new owners! I am also happy to e-mail you the PDF, as well, just e-mail me at the address below and I'll happily get that to you! :)

Please don't hesitate to send us any/all questions you might have...e-mail us at info@redseason.com!

6. Vacation Highlights - Discovery Bay with small children

We've heard from one of our clients who recently visited Discovery Bay in beautiful Port Townsend, WA. This location is basically on the Strait of Juan de Fuca, between the Pacific Ocean and Puget Sound and what an amazing spot! This family has very young children and so we thought you'd enjoy hearing about a few of their experiences there...just in case it might also be applicable to you! They were able to snag a 2-bedroom loft on Bonus Time, so off they went, not really knowing what to expect, as they'd never stayed at this location before. Their suite was a 3-level townhouse, with waterfront views from every level! The lower level housed the master bedroom and bath, the middle level was the kitchen and living space (with a fold-out queen Murphy bed) and in the upper 3rd-floor loft was a queen bedroom and bath. Each level had its own balcony space and amazing views. Because they had very small children, they didn't feel quite comfortable sleeping in the master bedroom on the lower level while their kids were on the 3rd floor so the kids bunked on the Murphy bed on the 2nd level and that worked great! They were able to park very close to their unit which made it great for unloading. They loved their pool time, but said the best time was just relaxing on their balcony watching the beautiful views! It's a definite "repeat" in their future, they said! If you have a lovely vacation story to share, we'd love to hear about it! :)
